

Faith Works

James 5

James 5:3&5

3 Your gold and silver have corroded, and their corrosion will be evidence against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up treasure in the last days.

5 You have lived on the earth in luxury and in self-indulgence. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.

James 5:7-12

7 Be patient, therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord.

8 You also, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.

9 Do not grumble against one another, brothers, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the door.

10 As an example of suffering and patience, brothers, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

11 Behold, we consider those blessed who remained steadfast.

12 but let your "yes" be yes and your "no" be no, so that you may not fall under condemnation.

James 5

13 Let him pray.

14 let them pray over him,

15 And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick,

16 pray for one another,

16 The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working.

James 5:19-20

19 My brothers, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and someone brings him back,

20 let him know that whoever brings back a sinner from his wandering will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

James 5 Summary

- Am I being self indulgent?
- Am I being patient and waiting for the Lord?
- When others see me do they see a pillar that is steadfast?
- Am I grumbling about others?
- Are my words trustworthy?
- Do I pray with faith like Elijah?
- Am I helping wandering brothers?
